"I first came to work at T&T as an intern after my junior year of college, so I was fortunate enough to have an opportunity to really get to know the Firm and decide it was the right fit for me. What made me choose to begin my career here is simple – the people. You can be an auditor anywhere, and what you do will be exactly the same; however, the people you work with won't. The staff at T&T genuinely care about how you develop as a professional and really foster an environment of learning that is both open and collaborative."

- JESSICA SCHNEIDER, CPA Supervisor
